Describe the two best practices successfully Implemented by the institution as per NAAC format provided in the manual

Vaish College, Bhiwani

Best Practices: - 01

Title: - participatory administration for holistic development of students

Objectives:-

Vaish College Bhiwani is always committed to provide the best environment and facilities available to it. Various Committees and boards are constituted involving all the staff members to their best capabilities. Everyone is authorized to give suggestions for betterment of students. There is advisory board which gives advice on different issues whenever is asked by principal. The Institute offers best opportunities to its all stakeholders. But somehow does not the specific facility with it then tries to find the best and ensures to make them available to its students and faculty members. In this direction the institute has done a large number of Memorandums of understanding (MOUs).

1. Holistic development of students
2. To ingrain the rigour and capacity building.
3. To provide unbridled resources and opportunities for research and development for its undergraduate and post graduate students as well as for the faculty members.
4. To inspire students and faculty members to venture in to collaborative researches.
5. To foster the mutual cooperation between institutes for betterment of students, Faculty members and other researcher.
6. To explore benefits from the resources and technology available in multidimensional institutes of the region so that shortage of resources does not hinder the overall development of institute.
7. To understand the best practices and good practices of other sister institutes so that same or some modified form of that could be implemented in our institute for betterment.

The Context: -

The Institute is a big unit so to run it smoothly there should be participation of all its stakeholders. The Institute should not run on single person's decision. The Government of India and State Government have focused to uplift the standard of higher education and invested a lot on learning, scientific infrastructure and researches. The students of Undergraduate and post-graduate have lots of potential for research and innovations. To tap them requires providing best resources and opportunities as well as training at best. Unavailability of resources should not be an excuse.

The practice: -

The Institute Constitutes a large number of Committees, cell and Boards required for various works in the beginning of Session. The principle behind this is mutual cooperative management and participatory administration. The Institute contacted the like-minded Institutes established in the region or outside, to offer his resources and services for their betterment and in-turn wants to access their resources and services to impart quality education, student friendly atmosphere and holistic development. The Institute always worked hard in this direction. Mutual and collaborative events has been organised for better exposure of students. Industries and firms are also contacted for not only to access their resources and technology at best but also to ensure campus placement for the deserving students to make them independent.

Evidences of success:-

Each and every stakeholder feels proud to be part in development of the institute. The college not only excelled in academics but also in other curricular and co-curricular activities. The 11 memorandum of Understanding(MOU) with multifaceted Institutes, Universities and technological Industries has been done. The cooperative and collaborative activities done during the session signifies the success. Students get benefitted from the practice in sense of resources, guidance and exposure.

Problem encountered:-

No doubt the participatory administration is going good but still lot of work have to be done in this direction. The Institute tried hard to have at least an activity with all the MOU signed Institute but due to lack of time and mismatching of time it count not happen. But Institute got success to have collaborative activity with six institutes.
